Product End of Lifecycle (EOL) Notice

(Notification of termination of selected Power Supply products)

To whom it may concern,

This letter to inform you that Altech Corporation plans to execute an End of Lifecycle process for selected power supply products.

After a thorough review of the existing product offering, we have made a determination to discontinue those products in order to provide you with more advanced and efficient product while effectively managing our product portfolio. This product availability is limited to the stock currently available at the Altech warehouse or product currently on the way to Altech from the manufacturing locations.

See attached for specific part numbers.

We sincerely appreciate you use this product planned for discontinuation and we ask your understanding on any inconveniences caused by this. We hope this notification allows you time to complete existing projects and shift future projects to one of the alternate products.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

Thank you for your understanding and we look forward working with you on alternate products for your DC power solutions projects.
